The Gathering asks that each Adult Leader carry a cell phone at the Gathering and to supply their number to the Gathering Office. This number will allow the Gathering Office to contact individual groups in case of a specific emergency. To provide an additional line of communication, the Gathering plans to send text messages pertaining to important program reminders and emergency information. Text messages pertaining to program information will not exceed 10 text messages over the period of the Gathering. At the time of online registration, Adult Leaders will have the opportunity to option out of the text messaging service.

I wish to OPTION OUT of receiving text message updates while at the Gathering. However, I will provide my cell phone in case of a specific emergency. If the box is not checked on the online registration form, you will be enrolled to receive Gathering text messages.
